

When your office is also your showroom, you need to ensure that your office furniture is at peak performance and mirrors your brand positioning. Maric Homes required just this, and Accent Environments was pleased to partner with them to provide office furniture customized precisely to their needs.

"We built our business designing beautiful custom homes. What better way to design a new showroom than to highlight our brand through equally attractive and customizable office furniture."

Marcia Maric
Design Centre Manager

CASE STUDY